

We Are Offering A $5,000 Sign On Bonus For Our New Clinical Director!

Who We Are Looking For:

We are looking for someone who has the passion and drive to help young people in the foster care system heal and grow by building and leading a clinical department that is in alignment with Lindencrofts mission of serving youth who identify as female who have been commercially and sexually exploited.

Lindencroft is a group home treatment setting that serves adolescent females ages 12-18 through a comprehensive network of trauma-informed (ARC) services, including community living, therapeutic recreation, competency development, and family, group, and individual therapy.

Salary Range: $70,000 - 75,000

Relocation assistance is available for the right candidate!

At Lindencroft, we believe in providing our employees with an opportunity for work-life balance. Flexible schedules, which include a hybrid work model are available.

JRI Provides The Training So That:

- YOU will be able to provide direct oversight and supervision of all clinicians and clinical services provided including individual, family and group therapies and unique therapies provided including ARC, CBT, DBT, Animal Assisted Therapy, and Sensory Motor Arousal Regulation Therapy modalities.
- YOU will be able to work in tandem with the Program Director and Administrative team to provide a shared vision of the programmatic clinical services and to maintain positive relationships with outside agencies, families, and other involved parties.
- YOU will be able to create a safe and therapeutic community by supporting youth in developing and by role modeling effective coping strategies.
- YOU will help youth discover what makes them feel competent and valued by working with them to develop life skills such as cooking, banking, vocational skills, and more. Your day-to-day work will support youth in developing a sense of self and provide them the skills to be successful in their next steps.
