Director of Small Business

Do you want to work with a dynamic organization engaged in meaningful work to make Boston better?

Does a commitment to equity and community motivate you personally and professionally?

Have a strong interest in small business technical assistance or small business lending?

Dorchester Bay Economic Development Corporation (DBEDC) is seeking a motivated and entrepreneurial Director of Small Business (DSB) to join our team.

The Organization and its Programs

DBEDC acts to build a strong, thriving, and diverse community in Boston’s Dorchester neighborhoods. We develop, preserve, and sustain affordable housing for rent and for ownership. We create commercial and economic development opportunities. We build community through community organizing and civic engagement activities. We are focused on the concepts of equitable development without displacement and providing opportunities for economic mobility.

Since our founding in 1979, DBEDC has developed and preserved over 1100 units of rental and homeownership housing and 200,000 square feet of commercial space. We have created around 1,000 jobs and involved more than 1,500 young people in after school leadership development and organizing activities. We are one of Boston’s oldest and most established community development organizations with an annual operating budget of almost $6.5 million supporting our programs with a staff of just under 30, and $225M, consists of 18 developments housing 986 units.

As an SBA-approved micro-lender and a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI), DBEDC is committed to expanding access to capital in our neighborhoods. As one of the founders of the Boston Workforce and Reentry Coalition (BWRC), DBEDC is committed to catalyzing economic mobility for the people it serves.

About the Role

Reporting to the CEO, the DSB plays a critical role in developing and implementing strategies to expand access to capital and technical assistance in the neighborhoods we serve. The DSB will oversee the agency’s $4.5 million loan fund. The DSB will lead the innovation and expansion of DBEDC technical assistance offerings, programmatic and fund operations, outreach and marketing, new product development, and growth of DBEDC’s loan fund.

What you can expect to do in the role:

- Develop and lead initiatives to support small business in DBEDC service area start, sustain, grow, and thrive.
- Partner with the CEO to develop and implement approaches to lending that prioritize equity and economic justice.
- Motivate, develop, and lead the small business team - currently comprised of three full-time staff - including goal setting, performance evaluation, coordinating duties, and supporting staff’s growth and training.
- Oversee department operations, including: program design and innovation, data collection, compliance, outcomes tracking, program outreach and marketing, and prepare and manage program budgets and reports.
- Grow microlending pipeline, improve current loan products and lending processes; develop new loan products as needed to meet evolving business needs.
- Innovate and expand technical assistance offerings with an orientation toward cultural relevance.
- Represent DBEDC to businesses, civic groups, municipalities, donors, investors, and other stakeholders to convey the availability and impact of DBEDC’s small business technical assistance and capital.
• Liaise with local, state, and federal agencies, including the U.S Small Business Administration (SBA), the CDFI Fund, Massachusetts Growth Capital Corporation (MGCC), and Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development (EOHED) to strengthen relationships and ensure compliance with policies.
• Actively identify and pursue funding opportunities; collaborate with Resource Development team as appropriate to prepare grant proposals and applications, contracts, reports, narratives, promotional materials, and other content to secure resources and articulate the impact and successes of DBEDC’s economic opportunity programming.
