

Nonprofit Community Engagement Director

PALPartner.org is seeking an experienced Nonprofit Community Engagement Director to join our team!

Your primary responsibility will be to support the missions of Police Activity and Athletic Leagues across the nation.

Overall, the Non-profit Community Engagement Director will be responsible for designing and executing outreach activities to build relationships with youth organizations, non-profits, schools, and other stakeholders in the community. The ideal candidate will have experience in community engagement, program development, and fundraising.

The Director will work with local police activity leagues, community organizations, and other stakeholders to help create and maintain relationships, build awareness, and expand the reach of our youth engagement initiatives.

In this role, as the Director, you will also be responsible for developing and implementing marketing and communications plans to promote these initiatives. The Director will also provide guidance and support to local PAL partners in the development and implementation of their own youth engagement initiatives.

Responsibilities:

- Develop relationships with key stakeholders in the community to identify and secure resources, funding, and partnerships
- Develop and implement outreach strategies to increase awareness and engagement with the Police Activity Leagues

- Work with internal teams to develop new programs and initiatives to meet the needs of the PALs
- Track, analyze, and report on outreach activities and results
- Help manage fundraising efforts such as grants, special events, and other initiatives
- Attend community events, meetings, and workshops to represent the organization
- Assist with other duties as assigned
- Prepare regular reports on program performance and progress
- Ensure compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, and policies

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in a related field preferred, or relevant experience
- Minimum of five years of experience in community engagement, program development, and/or fundraising
- Demonstrated success in developing relationships with youth organizations, non-profits, schools, and other stakeholders in the community
- Excellent communication, organizational, and time management skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Knowledge of PALs and the mission of PALPartner.org a plus
- Proficiency in MS Office and Google applications

Does this describe you?

Passionate about making a difference in the lives of our youth? Driven to build relationships and connect the Police Activity Leagues with the community? Ready to take on a new challenge?

If so, we want to hear from you! Please visit <https://palpartner.org/careers> for more information and to apply for this position.

More about PALPartner.org

PALPartner.org is a platform that helps to facilitate and support the missions of Police Activity and Athletic Leagues (PALs) across the nation. We work to provide resources and develop initiatives to help support the PALs and the youth they serve.

Our goal is to provide youth with the tools and resources they need to lead successful and productive lives.
