Position Announcement:
Vice President, Finance & Administration

About Heights Philadelphia
Heights Philadelphia believes that creating pathways to educational and workforce success for low-income, Black and Brown, and first-generation-to-college students is the keystone of a more equitable and prosperous Philadelphia. That's why Heights has merged the resources of Philadelphia Futures and Steppingstone Scholars to become the most dynamic educational nonprofit in Philadelphia.

Heights Philadelphia connects Philly youth to careers and college with a network of people who believe — and invest — in their talents. We're working with over 3,000 Philadelphia students from middle school onward, providing individualized advising, academic enrichment, and college and career programming that breaks down barriers to propel economic mobility.

About this Role
The Vice President oversees finance, technology, administration and benefits, managing and coaching a layered team to lead and develop the organizational systems, processes, and practices that will propel Heights into its next phase of growth, sustainability, and impact. Working closely with the Co-Presidents and serving as a member of the senior management team, the VP’s primary focus will be evolving Heights’ financial and operating model to support and accelerate its goals, and collaborating with members of the senior management team to ensure that Heights is implementing a business plan that is ambitious and actionable.

This is an exciting opportunity for an entrepreneurial finance leader with operational experience, who brings a big-picture approach centered in creative and collaborative problem solving.

You’ll help us to achieve:
In pursuit of our mission and with a goal of serving 5,000 Philadelphia students by 2025, the Vice President provides the leadership, management and vision necessary to ensure that Heights’ has the infrastructure in place to effectively scale with financial strength and operational efficiency.

You’ll be responsible for:

Organizational & Team Leadership
- Lead the development and implementation of a business and operating model that is strategic, innovative, and financially sound
- Contribute to the development of Heights’ strategic goals and objectives as well as the overall management of the organization
Serve as a strategic advisor to the senior management team and board of directors, providing financial, operational, and technology insights to support decision-making.

Liaise to the Finance and Investment Committees, effectively communicating and presenting critical financial matters to key stakeholders.

Lead, mentor and promote the professional growth of a diverse, layered team of 5+ professionals, including the Director of Finance and Administration; Associate Director, Finance, part-time bookkeeper Office Manager; Systems and Technology Coordinator, and administrative interns.

Collaborate on annual goal setting for the team, driving and executing team roadmaps, setting objectives, and providing feedback to ensure a high level of teamwork and performance toward goals.

In alignment with Heights’ values, foster a commitment to continuous improvement and learning, quality services, and innovation.
